

Movement For Progressive Leaders

WE LIVE IN CHALLENGING TIMES.

There are brilliant people in the business community, who can offer experience and long-term strategic thinking, and who are committed to drive positive change for a better society.

Our mission is to find more of these leaders and help them to influence society for the better.

Our purpose is for leaders:

To be heard

To bring balance,
opportunity
and long-term
strategic thinking

To have influence
on responsible
policy for a better society

To be recognised
as a force
for good

Being able to communicate company purpose and societal impact is now an essential ability for any business leader.

voCL empowers business leaders, especially future senior leaders, to be brave, to become more effective, authentic communicators with the ability to positively influence society.

The vocL professional development programmes have been designed for early-career professionals and rising stars in business
